Neighbors Celebrate Occasions

A neighborhood party held at the homes of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Fay, 5404 Linda Dr. welcomed new neighbors, celebrated birthdays and a wedding anniversary.

Welcomed to the neighborhood were Mr. and Mrs. George Hodges, and three children, 5335 Linda and Mr. and Mrs. William Schuckman, 5347 Linda.

Also receiving greetings and a warm welcome was another neighbor George Betus of Robert Rd. who recently returned from a lengthy stay at the City of Hope.

Birthdays celebrated were those of Mrs. Virginia Stewart, Mrs. Dorothy Schuckman and Mrs. Edward Fay. The occasion also marked the 15th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Quinton Johnson.

Softball was played by the children - after which there was a hamburger feed for the youngsters who were then sent home.

A volleyball game, ping pong and dancing were enjoyed by the adults followed with a steak barbecue.

In the party were Messrs and Mmes George Betus, Lamar Stewart, C. Lepore, Sanford Patton, William Schuckman, Quinton Johnson, George Hodges, Edward Fay, Merlin Aldred and Mrs. Stanley Briggs.

MISS DOROTHY HARLAN
... Plans Wedding

Harlan-Wear Wedding Is Scheduled for Sept. 15

Wedding bells will ring on Sept. 15 for Miss Dorothy Bernadene Harlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Harlan, 1663 W. 216th St. and Denver Overlee Wear, son of Mrs. M. L. Laskey, 21012 Shearer Ave., Torrance and Dewey Wear of Los Angeles.

The wedding will take place at a nuptial mass at 9 a.m. at the Nativity Catholic Church.

Miss Harlan graduated from the Nativity school and completed her sophomore year at Torrance High. She is now employed by an insurance company in Los Angeles.

Her future husband attended Banning High school and served with Air Force in Korea. He is now employed at Douglas El Segundo.

MISS ADRIENNE SIDWELL
... Accepts Ring

Adrienne Sidwell to Wed Frank Fowler June 1957

Miss Adrienne Sidwell has set a wedding date with Frank Fowler for June of 1957.

Future bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark H. Sidwell of 2405 Torrance Blvd., and the benedict is the son of Mr. Jay Fowler of Henderson, Nevada, and Mrs. Ethel Knight of Aransas Pass, Texas.

The engaged couple were members of the 1955 graduating class at Narbonne High School. The bride-elect, who is a former school correspondent of the HERALD, was editor of the Green and Gold school paper and was affiliated with the Jane Adams Club, California Scholarship Federation, and GAA president. She is now attending El Camino Junior College and plans to attend USC in 1957 to study dental hygiene.

Mr. Fowler who resides at 3537 Palm Ave., Lynwood is attending Compton Junior College studying business administration. While attending Narbonne, he was vice president of the Vigilantes and a staff member of El Echo, school annual, and the Green and Gold.

Local Woman Named State Fair Judge

Mrs. E. R. Stephenson, 2814 W. 182nd St. has the distinction of being chosen as one of the three judges for the homecraft department of the California State Fair which opened yesterday at the location in Sacramento where it has been held for the past 102 years.

BIG BEAR LAKE

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Dennis and daughters, Carol and Alice of 429 De Los Miradores spent three days last week at Big Bear Lake accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Weyant.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson left Torrance last Friday going to Atascadero where they visited their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Stephenson Jr. and Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Croft. They went to Sacramento on Saturday and Mrs. Stephenson with two other judges from Sacramento spent Monday and Tuesday judging handcraft, leatherwork, weaving, crochet, knitting, embroidery and braided and hooked rugs.

Mrs. Stephenson, whose braided rug had won first prize at the Pomona Fair and whose hooked rug was displayed at the Torrance fair, was chosen by Mrs. Johnson, secretary to the head of the art department for the state fair.

She says that this year's art show will be the most magnificent in history as over $200,000 in original paintings will be displayed. Mr. Stephenson, who spent his time visiting the exhibits, pointed out that the flower show will also be one of the highlights of the State Fair.
